Negotiations Pending For Sale Of Old High School Property

Engagement Of Miss Thomson Is Announced Last Saturday

E. COATES MAY PURCHASE HIGH SCHOOL PROPERTY

Garage Man In Field for Broadway Property Long the Site of Educational Institution.

E. Coates, local agent for Ford cars, and proprietor of the Ford Garage on Broadway, is negotiating with the Board of Trustees of the Sonoma Valley Union High School for the purchase of the old school property on Broadway. The property comprising two acres of land on the southerly boundary line of the City of Sonoma, is improved with a two story building and outbuildings. When the new high school property was acquired from F. M. Burris and the new $110,000 building erected, the antiquated structure was abandoned and an effort made to dispose of the property.

The trustees have finally succeeded in interesting Mr. Coates, who is buying it for an investment. The price is in the neighborhood of $4000 according to the bids called for in recent advertising. Recently a deal fell through which would have converted the school building into an apartment house. It has also been considered as a hospital site and for other purposes.

The old high school was originally the Methodist College in days gone by and was once the only good school in this vicinity. The earthquake of 1906 seriously damaged the structure which had been brought up to date by the high school trustees. It was then necessary to reconstruct it and it did service thereafter for over 15 years, although the growth of the school and scope of new work made apparent the necessity for a new school some time before bonds were voted for the purpose. The grounds were considered too small as the site of the present school plant, so acreage in the vicinity was acquired.

Mr. Coates does not state what his plans are in regard to the high school property when the deal is consummated, but concedes that it is a good investment.

SONOMA'S NEW FIRE ENGINE HAS ARRIVED

Sonoma's handsome new Seagrave "Suburbanite" fire engine has been received and is now ready for duty at the city hall. It is a real engine and is a combination pump and chemical, fully equipped.

The big Seagrave stands with the other apparatus in the fire house and the progress of the City of Sonoma is thus well illustrated. There is first of all the old hand pump engine on which so many of our sturdy pioneers sweated in the old days. With it is the dependable hose cart which we ran to so many fires in the days gone by. The hook and ladder truck, the pride of 1887, is there, too.

Companion to the Seagrave is the valiant, though smaller, Waterous, which the people of Sonoma acquired just a few years ago and is a dependable ally for the new $6500 engine.

Why This Neglect Of The Plaza?

The present condition of the old historic Sonoma Plaza, which the Native Sons of the Golden West so recently marked as a spot worthy of the admiration and reverence of every real Californian, is no credit to the City of Sonoma in its present neglected, uncared for condition. If we cannot convert our Plaza into a park, we should, at least, have a clean, well kept square free of weeds and rubbish, the walks swept up occasionally, and some interest shown in it.

FOURTH OF JULY IN SONOMA VALLEY

The grand and glorious Fourth was ushered in last night with dances and merriment throughout Sonoma Valley. Patriotic decorations and Old Glory are everywhere in evidence and the holiday crowds are arriving in the usual numbers. While no program of exercises is scheduled for Sonoma City there will be plenty of diversion and amusement for our many visitors over this week end.

Genther's Ambassadors of Oakland, one of the best jazz aggregations on the coast, furnished music for the dance at Parente's Coney Island last night and will play there again tonight. A record crowd is expected at the big pavilion.

Boyes Springs baths and theatre will be the mecca of a great holiday throng. First run motion pictures, dancing to Jimmy Bachelier's famous orchestra and the day and night swimming are the attractions at this popular amusement center.

At Fetters Springs Theatre the carnival started last evening with a carnival ball and tonight the Midnight Frolics ball is the feature. There will be special music, confetti and favors, with dancing until morning. The swimming tank and baths at Fetters are always popular with vacationists and will be a lively spot during the week end. Agua Caliente's famous springs are entertaining a big crowd and at the Poppy Bowl and baths fine programs have been arranged for today and tomorrow.

Mrs. Joseph Revie, who was operated upon at a Santa Rosa hospital recently, is reported as being well on the road to recovery.

Pacific Association Championship July 11 and 12 Big Event At Boyes Springs

In regard to the big championship yard championship at Del Monte last swim at Boyes Springs next week the year, will be on hand to defend her title at Boyes. Miss Gibson is swimming faster than ever before in her career and there are many who think that she will be more than a pace-maker to the national champion. The which will be held at Boyes Springs Alameda girl will have plenty of time to get into perfect condition for the race at Boyes and it is certain that she will do 30 seconds or better in the event.

Entry blanks were issued Monday for the Pacific Association 50 yard women's swimming championship which will be held at Boyes Springs on Saturday and Sunday, July 11th and 12th. This race will be one of the important events of the season and the first of the P. A. senior title events for 1925.

The Boyes Springs baths, which have been reconstructed since the big fire which swept the Valley of the Moon in 1923, is now an inclosed natatorium. The course over which the mermaids will swim is 68 feet, which will require them to cover two laps and 14 feet for the 50 yards.

Eleanor Garatti, who will swim in the Boyes race, is famed for her rapid turns. She should come close to a new American record in the P. A. championship for this tank will be much to her liking.

And Yet Some Will Celebrate This Sad Loss

Petitions were filed Saturday in the U. S. district court for an order authorizing the destruction of 60,000 gallons of wine seized in raids on five wineries in northern California. Places named are C. L. Tucker, of Calistoga, 7000 gallons; A. de Marcantonio, Hopland, 13,000 gallons; Jose Asavedo, Healdsburg, 10,000 gallons; B. Bacchi, Healdsburg, 8,000 gallons; G. Gondola, Santa Rosa 21,700 gallons. The petitions were filed by G. R. Johnson, assistant U. S. attorney, and the wine will be destroyed when the orders are signed.

SURPRISE FOR Y. L. I. RETIRING PRESIDENT

On Thursday night of last week the Young Ladies' Institute surprised the retiring president, Jane Daugherty. After the regular meeting, a "business" visit to the new hall, formerly the convent, was arranged and when the charming office holder, arrived at the place of inspection, she found instead of official business, decorations, music and all the accompaniments of a real party, of which she was most apparently the motif. A handsome pin of the Council was presented to her and also a beautiful bouquet, both of which she acknowledged with an appropriate speech. Rev. J. F. Byrne and members of the Young Men's Institute were present to felicitate the retiring officer, and the outgoing president of the Young Men's Institute, John Steiner, and the new president, Joe Baccaglio, shortly to be installed, participated in the festivities.

Refreshments were served dancing was tried out on the new floor of the hall and a most enjoyable evening spent.

Miss Daugherty's successor in the Council is Mrs. Anita Murray, recently elected, and to be installed later.

Ex-Supervisor Harry Weise of Glen Ellen was guest of honor on his birthday at a dinner party last Sunday, at Winehaven, given by his brother, Charles Weise and wife. Mr. Weise, accompanied by his friends Tony Cerechino of Sonoma, and Fred Kerridge and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luttrell of Santa Rosa, were at Winehaven for the "big feed."

Dinner and Dance Mark Announcement of Engagement of Miss Celia Thomson to William Schiffler.

The engagement of Miss Celia Thomson, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomson, of Sonoma, to William H. Schiffler, of Berkeley, was formally announced at a dinner party and dance given last Saturday evening. The dinner was given by Miss Beth Lane, U. C. girl, at her home, El Rancho Ideal. Guests were the friends of the bride-to-be and her fiancé. Decorations were lovely gladioli in many varieties.

Little Nancy Zog Olin, dressed in pink taffeta and carrying a gold basket, passed the cards to the guests announcing the engagement. After a delicious repast, in which congratulations and good wishes were intermingled, the guests of honor, hostess and dinner guests motored to the Woman's Club house, joining a larger party which Dr. and Mrs. Thomson had arranged in honor of their daughter. The club house was beautifully decorated, music par excellence had been engaged and dainty refreshments were served. Many out of town young folks were on the guest list.

Although news of the engagement had been known for some time past to close friends of the young folks, the happy news had not been generally known. Miss Thomson is a graduate of the Sonoma high school and is a pretty brunette with the dark eyes of her Spanish-California ancestors. Mrs. Lulu Vallejo Emparan, a daughter of General M. G. Vallejo being her grand mother. After completing her high school course, Miss Thomson attended Munson's School for Private Secretaries in San Francisco, and then returned to assist her father, Dr. Thomson, prominent and successful physician, in his offices here.

It was in Berkeley, at the home of mutual friends, that she first met her fiancé, William Harrison Schiffler, a young U. C. graduate and chemist in the laboratories of the Standard

WOULD HELP THE SONOMA FIREMEN

At the lunch hour at a local hotel recently a number of Sonoma business and professional men were praising the new fire engine and our volunteer department. Incidentally, it was suggested that the fire ladders who volunteer time and risk their lives if necessary, when fire breaks out, should have some substantial help in replacing ruined clothes and other necessities in their noble line of duty. A prominent professional man has started off such a fund with $5. Andrew Smith, of the Central Commercial and Savings Bank, is the custodian of all moneys to be received for this laudable purpose. If you are interested in our firemen, call at the bank and leave your contribution with Mr. Smith.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Today, Saturday, is the Fourth of July and Sonoma Valley is thronged with one of the largest crowds of visitors yet recorded. The Stars and Stripes are flying to the four winds from business buildings and residences. Our streets are crowded with pretty summer girls who are enjoying the dancing, moving pictures and other amusements, and with the girls are a number of shicks, dolled up in the latest summer styles. The Independence Day of America is being celebrated as in the good old days and everybody is happy today in El Verano, which is 100 per cent American.

Many mermen and pretty mermaids swarmed to Agua Caliente Sunday and enjoyed the large swimming tank and baths. The visitors were mostly from bay cities and enjoyed the cutting. As the clock struck three, Ed Perkins, with his cornet, called the crowd to order and invited them all to partake of the candy given away by the management. Over 1000 bars of candy was distributed to the visitors, and the Candy Kid, Mr. Perkins, received many a smile from the pretty summer fairies as they received the gift. On the Fourth of July and Sunday extra amusements will be featured at the bath house and Tom Corcoran looks for the largest crowd ever registered in Sonoma Valley.

Captain and Mrs. Muldowney arrived Sunday to spend the summer months at their Nob Hill bungalow. They reside in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. G. Miller of San Francisco have been guests at the Minkel home. Mrs. Zimmermann and son, Elwood are visiting at Orland for a week. Stanley McGill of Schellville was transacting business in Santa Rosa Monday.

Miss Beth Weaver, after a pleasant visit in Sacramento, the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. Hunt, has returned to her El Verano home.

Horace Appleton, known to his old time school friends as "Tot," returned to Oakland last Saturday morning after visiting relatives in old Sonoma. "Tot" met many of his pals at El Verano, who were glad to see him. He looks the same as he did 20 years ago and enjoyed his visit in the valley.

Frank Bayoul and wife were enjoying El Verano hospitality over the week end. The Bayouls reside in San Francisco.

An arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Ryan on Friday of last week, when he took into custody a Verano man who is alleged to have attacked his wife with a two-by-four. A service station proprietor near Agua Caliente was also arrested for having threatened, it is said, to throw his wife down a well. What next? The excessive heat must have affected these offenders.

J. Hasman of San Francisco was a week end visitor at the Peppin home in West El Verano.

Mrs. A. Perrett was a Saturday visitor in Oakland.

Mrs. Smith has left for Colorado via Los Angeles, where she will spend some time with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunt and son of Sacramento were motor visitors to Bodega Bay Saturday, where they enjoyed the week end at the famous seaside resort.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Jensen of San Francisco were visitors at the Fred Jensen home the first of the week.

F. Cavallaro was called to San Jose last week by the news that his aunt was seriously ill.

J. Antoniovitch, western foothills dairyman and farmer, was transacting business in San Francisco last week.

Robert Hill, Glen Ellen rancher was a business visitor in El Verano last Saturday.

Phil Rossi is enjoying the week at Bodega Bay, the guest of his son who conducts a resort at the seaside.

Mrs. Kate Carriger returned to her mountain ranch Saturday evening after visiting and looking over property interests in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Pierson and family of San Francisco were week end visitors at the Dutil home.

William Leebody of San Francisco is spending his annual vacation at the O'Brien ranch in the west foothills.

Joe Parente and family of San Francisco are vacationing at the Tavern, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Parente.

H. Ammann is at the Navarro River in Mendocino county this week on a fishing expedition.

L. B. McKinnon and family and Ed Dowdall were Sunday visitors at the N. Dowdall home. Mrs. McKinnon will remain for a two weeks' visit with her parents.

L. E. Rees has built a barber shop at the Locarnini corner, which will be opened today. In connection with the tonsorial parlor there will be a fruit and vegetable stand and a soft drink parlor.

Congressman and Mrs. Clarence F. Lea have returned after a trip to Europe. The distinguished travelers were met by Miss L. Lea and her sister, Mrs. E. B. Taylor, at Suisun on last Sunday. The party then motored to the Lea ranch at Schellville, where the solon looked over his property, arriving at the Lea home in Santa Rosa (Continued on Page Seven)

CONGRESSMAN AND MRS LEA ARE HOME

Congressman Clarence F. Lea and wife are home from a 96 day tour of Europe, where they visited ten countries and learned much of interest. Incidentally the knowledge gleaned by Mr. Lea on agriculture, commercial and economic conditions will be invaluable to him in Congress and will enable him to further advance the leadership he has attained at Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lea were glad to get back and most of all interested in their ranch and fruit crop at Schellville.

In an interview, the Congressman said:

"The United States government is criticized by nearly all European countries, although they are all courting the United States' friendship.

"Every country, and almost every individual we met in Europe had fault to find with the United States but still desired to keep the American friendship for his country. Each nation has its own individual viewpoint and wants the United States' friendship to further its own ends.

"England especially has much criticism of the United States. They seem to think that we haven't lived up to our opportunities as leader of the nations of the world.

"There is a great fear in Europe, especially in central and southern sections, of another great war.

"The hatred between Germany and France is the most disturbing factor in Europe today. Perhaps the only hopeful remedy that may halt the threatening calamity is the negotiation now under way between England, France, Belgium and Germany to guarantee the boundaries between France and Germany. This negotiation now in progress is the most hopeful sign seen in Europe for the past three years. We visited a session of the League of Nations at Geneva while they were in progress.

"It is my personal belief that another great war will come unless the hatred now in Europe is dispelled.

"Of all the countries and cities we visited I liked Paris best for enjoyment. We stayed the longest in Italy. It is a very beautiful country. We left New York on March 10th and landed first at Hamburg, Germany. On April 1st, when we were in Prague in Czechoslovakia, we saw the first blossoms of spring.

"When we returned to America, on the day we arrived in New York, we were told that 9000 Americans had left that day for Europe.

"The United States is far in advance of Europe when it comes to quantity production but Europe is still the leader in hand made goods.

The standard of living in Europe is much better since the armistice. Europe has been shaken out of its groove and is adopting American methods and standards.

"From the viewpoint of a farmer, Holland is a beautiful country. There are fine cattle, good horses and beautiful meadows and trees. It is a neat and quaint country.

"Paris is the most up to date city in Europe, but in nearly every city in Europe one can find modern stores. In our trip we visited England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, France, Italy, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Austria and Belgium.

"The European papers are unattractive as compared to the United States papers. The European mail service in general is not so uniformly as good as ours. Much of the mail is distributed by airplanes which are subsidized by the various countries of Europe. I visited the big aviation field near Paris while in France and saw the hundreds of planes coming and going every few minutes."

On the trip to Europe the Leas were accompanied by John Tilson of Connecticut, leader of the Republicans in the new congress. On the return to America Tilson also accompanied them on the same boat together with Congressman W. R. Green of Iowa, chairman of the ways and means committee and they discussed many matters in Europe and America.

"Tilson is the best leader in Con-

SONOMA VALLEY IN THE SWIM

The interesting announcement has been made that the Pacific Association swimming championships for women have been transferred this year from Del Monte to Sonoma Valley's famous Boyes Springs. Sonoma Valley is verily in the swim that Del Monte is out, and the change which will bring the big event nearer to San Francisco and the bay cities by several hours will be welcomed by water sports fans in general.

Boyes Springs, with its handsome and modern natatorium, has all the facilities to accommodate the swimmers and the crowds which will witness the big contests. A hearty welcome will be accorded the mermaids and their admirers in the Valley of the Moon next week.

MISSION CITY OF SANTA BARBARA UNDAUNTED

Our sister Mission city, Santa Barbara will arise again in greater beauty on the El Camino Real, for earthquakes cannot daunt her courage or pale her charm. San Francisco's courage in similar, though greater, disaster will be emulated, and Santa Barbara, assisted by California will arise in all her majestic beauty from ruins even now being cleared away.

Where is the city which has not had its disaster of some kind or another? It tests the mettle of citizenship to go through such catastrophes and here, where Providence kept the death toll so small, there is cause to be grateful and opportunity is given to make more secure future living in this beautiful place. Scientific engineering will be employed in the construction of buildings and Santa Barbara, like our own metropolis, will profit by the past and rebuild wisely and well.

California's earthquake visitations have never ranked with any of the great catastrophes of the world. People in the Middle West and East take as much chance with cyclones, tornados and heat as we do with earthquakes. Ocean travelers recall the Lusitania disaster and are perturbed, but do not stay home. Railroad accidents and hotel and theatre fires are terrible and widespread, but do not dampen the ardor of folks for change and amusement and recreation. Why, then, should the Santa Barbara shake hurt California? We do not believe that it will. People have come to be fatalists and above all they are restless and will go where they please, despite Florida cyclones and California tremors and the daily nation wide fatal toll of the automobile.

SECOND FIRE ENGINE JULY FOURTH

Sonoma City is celebrating the arrival and ownership of its second fire engine, which arrived this week and is ready for action. It is a comfortable feeling on July 4th to know that the big Seagrave is in the fire house to protect our homes and the property of our neighbors.

With the ban on fireworks, the fire menace on Independence Day has been cut down, but nevertheless, with so much dry grass, careless smoking, and a hundred dangers lurking about during the dry spell, it is assuring to feel that we have the added protection which our new $6000 fire engine affords. If it gives as good an account of itself in time of danger as has the little Waterous engine we bought some years ago, Sonoma will have made a splendid investment.

STEWART FRUIT CO. TO PACK PEARS HERE

The Stewart Fruit Company will pack and ship Sonoma Valley Bartlett pears about July 15th. The company headquarters and packing plant will be at the Sebastiani cannery building where there are excellent facilities for the work.

gress that the Republicans have had in the last 15 years," Lea stated.

Tilson went to Europe to make a survey of manufacturing conditions there for the United States army while Green was studying foreign revenue legislation.

BIG FIRE AT LAKEPORT

Damage amounting to $20,000 was caused at Lakeport Sunday morning when fire of undetermined origin destroyed five frame buildings on Main street opposite the Lake county court house. The blaze for a time threatened to spread to adjoining blocks, but was controlled after having once leaped the street to the phone office.

The blaze destroyed the Piner apartment house, where it was believed to have started, the McCloud and McGill realty office, the Art confectionery, Blue Goose Grill, Orange Inn, a restaurant and the building occupied by offices of Dr. H. P. Stipp.

Breaking out shortly after 10 o'clock Sunday morning, the fire spread rapidly. Local volunteer fire fighters, hampered by lack of equipment, were aided in fighting the blaze by residents of Kelseyville, Middletown and Popper Lake.

A number of firemen were injured during the course of the fire, but none seriously so.

An estate valued at $11,100 was left by the late Thomas F. Millerick of Schellville, according to a petition for letters of administration filed in the superior court this week by Mae E. Millerick. The estate consists of interests in two tracts of Schellville land, one of 101 acres and the other of 253 acres. Millerick, who died on June 16th, is survived by his widow, the petitioner, a son and a daughter. G. W. Hoyle and J. W. Ford are attorneys for the estate.

POPPE ESTATE WORTH $20,000

Sonoma real estate and personal property valued not in excess of $20,000 was left by the late Catherine Poppe, who died June 5th, according to a petition for the probate of the will filed in the superior court by Julius E. and Charles J. Poppe. A will dated November 25, 1924, was left by deceased, in which they are named executors, together with Robert A. Poppe, now deceased. The heirs are the petitioners and Emma Small and Catherine E. Buchan.

Why Easterners Eat More California Pears

Per capita consumption of Pears for 1920 to 1924

When it's all said and done, the number of pears that are eaten per capita in the large centers in the east and middle west is the determining factor in how much the crop will bring to the grower. The two brothers "Supply" and "Demand" have the last word in the matter.

It is interesting to see what has happened in these markets during the last few years. The increasing number of pounds of pears eaten per capita give us a reasonable basis for hope for this year and the years to come.

In Chicago the last four years have seen the per capita consumption of pears almost doubled. In 1921 the per capita consumption was 2.31 pounds and in 1924 it had risen to 4.23 pounds.

- Boston shows almost as good a record as Chicago with 2.25 pounds consumed per person in 1920 and 4.08 pounds in 1924.

In staid old Philadelphia, where things are supposed to move so slowly, the per capita consumption has jumped from 2.35 pounds in 1921 to 3.66 pounds as the record for last year.

The average New Yorker, for example, ate in 1920, 3.02 pounds of pears. Last year he ate over 3.81 pounds of pears, or almost one third again as much.

Naturally there are good reasons for this increasing demand for pears in these cities. Mrs. Chicago sees in her morning paper an advertisement which tells her that at her grocer's she will find California Bartlett pears for sale. She is told that they will be there for only a few short weeks and then she will get none till next year.

She does her morning marketing and at the store she is confronted with signs and hangers and placards telling her that here are the pears that she had read about and has been waiting for.

It is just possible that she hasn't been aware all winter that she was waiting for the chance to buy California pears, but she buys them—she takes them home and when they are eaten, Mr. Chicago and all the little Chicagoans demand more.

This has been happening in some seven of the large eastern markets for the past four years. The results speak for themselves—more people are eating pears, with the consequence that the grocer disposes of his pears with greater ease, and the grower's market is stabilized and his crop brings him a greater return on his investment.

ANNIVERSARY BARBECUE

Sonoma Stamm, Daughters of Pocahontas, celebrated the eleventh anniversary of its organization on last Sunday by giving a fine barbecue to its members and their families. The barbecue was given at the picturesque Rhode ranch, with Philip Bill, Jr., as chef, and his good frau first assistant. Two young lambs were prepared for the feast, hung on a pole over a hard wood fire whose coals cooked them to a turn, after Chef Bill had tended them several hours and seasoned them just right. Tables were set under the oak trees and the delicious meat served with spaghetti, frijoles, and other good things, made a feast fit for a king.

The Daughters of Pocahontas were heartily congratulated on the success and good work of the lodge, and they in turn thanked Mr. and Mrs. Bill for their help in serving the fine banquet to commemorate the birthday of the organization.

Ice cream and cake was served later in the afternoon, completing the feasting and good time enjoyed by the hospitable ladies and gentlemen of the United Order of Redmen.

"SEPTEMBER MORN" KIDS IN STOLEN AUTO CAUGHT

After two days of freedom, during which they stole two autos and drove from Santa Rosa to San Rafael and to Schellville, W. Reynolds, 13, and D. Holeman, 17, who escaped Thursday of last week from the Boys' Aid Society camp on the Barlow ranch, four miles north of Sebastopol, were caught Monday morning between Sonoma and Schellville by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan.

The boys, according to the story they told Deputy Sheriff Ryan of Sonoma, escaped from the camp Thursday morning of last week and made their way afoot to Sebastopol. Sunday morning they reached Santa Rosa and stole a touring car. From Santa Rosa the boys drove to San Rafael, where the gasoline gave out, and they abandoned the machine, taking a light touring car which they found parked in the street. Monday morning they left San Rafael and started for Sonoma Valley, according to their story, and reached Schellville, where they were stopped and arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ryan, who had been on the lookout for the boys.

They were returned to the camp of the Boys' Aid Society near Sebastopol where they are working in the berry fields.

The smaller of the boys, a bright and polite little fellow, was still wearing a Turkish towel around his loins in lieu of clothes, for they escaped stark naked, the Aid Society making it a practice to lock up all the boys' clothes when they retire.

PENNIES IN SHOE MYSTERY

At 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning a telephone call came to Petaluma from Sears Point to the Marion ambulance stating that a wreck had occurred and asking that the ambulance be sent for two men who had been injured.

The ambulance made a record run down to the Point, and there found an overturned Ford car, with provisions and utensils scattered about and much blood on the pavement, showing that somebody had been injured, but the victims of the wreck had been taken away, by whom nobody knows.

Mr. Marion, who drove the ambulance, picked up a large tan shoe and was amazed to find that it contained over 550 copper pennies and it is now thought that the men who drove the wrecked car had robbed some merchandise vending machine. A rifle was entangled in the wreck and when Marion tried to release it, the gun was discharged.

STORKS will live ONLY in REPUBLICS

—Or so people used to think in the 16th century.

This is the 20th century. But we are still superstitious; for example, when we pay fancy prices for eastern lubricants in spite of the fact that the best crudes so far discovered for the manufacture of a motor oil are obtained from wells on the Pacific Coast.

Experience explodes the anti-western oil superstition

Zerolene actually lubricates better—and because it does it lubricates more cars in the Pacific Coast states than any other oil made—low and high priced cars alike. The most advanced refining process is this Company's patented high-vacuum process, during the use of which Zerolene is submitted to 15 positive checks for quality. Zerolene's special filtration through 40 tons of Florida Fuller's Earth gives you an oil that's absolutely pure and safe.

A longer working life for your motor

Zerolene will increase the gasoline mileage of your car, reduce carbon accumulation and lengthen its working life.

DRIED APPLES ALL SWELLED UP

It is reported in Sebastopol that the price of evaporated apples reached a record mark last Saturday when Guggenheim & Company of San Francisco made an offer of 11 cents per pound and later in the day their own bid was increased by 1 1/2 cents and closed a very active day by purchasing a considerable portion of the Joe Valentine tonnage at 12 1/2 cents.

It is the first time in the history of the industry in Sebastopol that a buyer in a single day has so enormously raised his own bid. The records of the after the war period of 1919 when the price of evaporated apples reached 23 cents per pound, discloses nothing to equal Saturday's deal.

It is generally understood that the principal reason for the sudden raise in price is due to a big demand for present holdings, as the production this year is far below recent years.

HEINS WILL CRUSH ROCK AUGUST FIRST

Mark and Jack Hein of Napa, who a few months ago leased the property of Mrs. Mae Lauritzen on the Petaluma San Rafael highway, are making good progress in the building of the rock crusher which is being erected on the Lauritzen property near the old Cantel place.

More than a dozen mechanics are at work building the towers and bunkers. The work of wiring has been completed and when Messrs. Hein begin building across the highway a big force of men will be given work.

It is expected that the new $100,000 crusher will be ready for operation about August 1st.—Petaluma Courier.

The Heins considered opening the Sonoma basalt quarries before going to Petaluma but found freight rates too high, they said.

WILL RETURN TO MAKE HER HOME

Mrs. Louise McElroy, formerly of Petaluma, mother of Mrs. A. Skinner, who has been residing for some time in Sonoma, which was formerly her home, plans to return to Petaluma to reside and her many friends will learn with pleasure that she is again to be a Petaluman. She is an enthusiastic Rebekah.—The Petaluma Argus.

COUNTY MAY BE ON TRANSCONTINENTAL LINE

Further indications of the battle between the Great Northern Railway System and the Southern Pacific Company in the West reached San Francisco last Saturday from Portland, where it was announced that Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern, had stated his company desires to push the Oregon Trunk railroad, now controlled by it, into California after reaching Klamath Falls, Ore.

Budd did not state that San Francisco was the ultimate objective of the Great Northern, but he did say that his line is projected to Susanville, a point not far from Westwood Junction, through which Southern Pacific lines penetrate into the bay region.

Budd expressed the desire to make use of existing lines, if possible, in his penetration into California, but he said that the Great Northern is determined on getting into new territory, even at the cost of duplicating present lines.

Readers of this paper will recall reported purchases of land recently, which would afford a railroad right of way into Eureka and that the belief was expressed by persons interested in these deals that the Great Northern contemplated obtaining a San Francisco terminal by making a deal with the Northwestern Pacific for the use of that company's present lines. This would put Sonoma county on the map of a great transcontinental system.

SIGHTSEERS EXCLUDED FROM JACK LONDON RANCH

Mrs. Charmian London announces that the famous Jack London ranch at Glen Ellen will henceforth be absolutely closed to sightseers. One of her representatives says:

"Sightseers are to be excluded from the Jack London ranch. A serious blaze was averted the other day when a carelessly tossed cigarette was discovered starting a fire in the dried firrass in the woods. The old Jack London tradition of hospitality to all had to be interfered with even during the author's lifetime, when it was found that gates were heedlessly broken, fires built in the woods, and other nuisances committed in spite of signs and requests, kindly worded. Charmian London tried out the old habit of hospitality to the public, and had the same experience. Finally, when padlocks on the gates were resorted to, the padlocks were shot to pieces by hoodlums and the premises invaded. 'It's a long worm that has no turning,' Mrs. London quotes from 'The Rivals,' and when she found on various occasions the lunch leavings of thoughtless trespassers at Jack London's grave, she thought it time to call a halt. Sightseers will therefore please take note that the ranch is closed to them. Unfortunately, as in the case of certain forest reserves and national parks, the innocent must suffer with the guilty. Too bad!"

Only recently Mrs. London's home was broken into, nor is this the first time that both new and old homes have been entered by vandals and property destroyed or taken.

GLEN ELLEN TRAGEDY DUPLICATED MONDAY

Two children saw their father electrocuted at Lakeport Monday and a moment later witnessed the death of their mother, when she, not knowing what caused his distress, rushed frantically to his assistance. The husband, Joe Oswald, pulled a pipe from a newly drilled well on his property east of Lakeport and it came in contact with a high voltage wire, instantly causing his death. The contact of Mrs. Oswald with the body of her husband caused her electrocution.

The tragedy is almost a parallel case to the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Oehler, who were killed near Glen Ellen in the same manner. Oehler was removing a pipe from a well when it came in contact with a power wire and was instantly killed. His wife was also killed when she, not realizing her husband's predicament, endeavored to render his assistance.

The fact that two similar tragedies should occur in this section of the state less than four months apart is considered remarkable. The Oswald family came to Lake county about a year ago, and leave three children, the eldest being 16 years of age. The two younger children witnessed the death.

CORMANS MAY SHARE IN LARGE ESTATE

E. P. Corman of Sonoma may share in a $1,000,000,000 estate on Manhattan Island, New York, if the claim of heirs of the late Robert Edwards is sustained. Robert Edwards was an ancestor of Mrs. C. E. Corman, mother of E. P. Corman, Mrs. Corman's mother being an Edwards.

The Sonoma family has all the date to prove their claim to an interest in the Manhattan property.

The Examiner of June 11th, said: "Ralph Wagner, 'mind reader' of Los Angeles and formerly of Salt Lake City, plans to leave here within the next few days with his attorney, Judge James W. McKinney, of Salt Lake, to carry on the fight of his ancestors to obtain title to his share of 65 acres of land on Manhattan Island said to be valued at more than one billion dollars.

"The property, lying in the heart of New York's business district and embracing Broadway and Wall street, is said by Wagner to have been the estate of Robert Edwards, ancestor of Wagner.

"If Wagner is successful in his fight for the property, a brother in Los Angeles and an uncle and a cousin, residing in Missouri, will share title to the land."

RAID FOLLOWS ARREST; WIFE IS COMPLAINANT

Pedroncelli's Hotel, near Kenwood was raided Tuesday night and two gallons of red wine seized. Later F. Bisirdi's ranch, near Longdale, Kenwood, was visited and 1175 gallons of wine seized. The raid was made by Sheriff Boyes and officers on a complaint sworn to by Mrs. Joseph Camotti, wife of a Sonoma Valley service station proprietor, who is now in the county jail, having been arrested on an alleged charge of having threatened the life of his wife and children while under the influence of liquor, alleged to have been secured at the places raided by the officers.

Pedroncelli and Bisirdi were released by furnishing $600 bail.

Health and Home

CAMPING AND PROBLEM OF FOOD

There is no healthier sport than camping. During the warm and balmy spring and summer days, it is real recreation. To get out in the fresh air and sunshine, free from worry and care, enhances the health of anyone, be he office man, salesman or what not.

But due to the entirely inadequate means of food preservation and refrigeration found in the majority of camps, there is the ever-present danger of sickness from infected foods. The utmost care must be taken in order that this may be avoided. Butter and eggs should be bought only as used. The milk is a problem in itself. Perhaps the solution lies in the use of a milk other than market milk, in order that purity and sterility may be assured. For such use, evaporated milk is ideal. Many people are wont to confuse evaporated and condensed milk, but there is no similarity between the two. Condensed milk is a combination of sugar and milk and can be used only when both of these substances are desired. Evaporated milk is merely pure, fresh milk with about sixty per cent of the water removed and the nutrient content left intact. It is absolutely sterile and pure, having been sterilized before leaving the factory. The water, removed by evaporation, may be replaced very easily and the milk returned to its original volume. Evaporated milk may be obtained in small cans, containing six ounces or in larger ones containing sixteen and can be taken to the camp in quantities sufficient for the needs of the entire period, thus assuring a constant supply of pure, fresh milk without the worry or the danger attached to the use of the market product.

Following are recipes for a few dishes that are best adapted for camp consumption because of ease of preparation, purity and food value.

Tomato Soup.
1 pint tomato pulp 1 1/2 cups water or canned tomato soup 2 cups evaporated milk
Salt and pepper to taste
1/2 cup soda
Bring tomato pulp or soup to the boil, add the seasonings and soda. Heat the milk and water and combine slowly with the tomato mixture.

Shirred Eggs.
1/2 cup evaporated milk 1/2 tsp. paprika
1/2 cup water 1 egg
1/2 tsp. pepper 2 tbsp. fat
Beat the eggs, add the milk, water and seasonings. Melt the fat in a frying pan. Add the egg mixture and stir until the mixture is creamy. When almost done, sprinkle with grated cheese. Serve on slices of bread, toast or crackers.

My father, Francesco Quatrocolo, has again left my board and home. I will not be responsible for any debts incurred by him.
